How Do We Start To Tell Our Story?

Greater Sudbury

We Start By Asking Questions?

What signals do we want to send to the world about who we are?

- ✧ We care for all our people.
- ✧ We hold a special place for youth and the elderly.
- ✧ We respect our history but our path is forward looking.
- ✧ We are leaders not followers.
- ✧ We are a seamless blend of urban and lake life culture
- ✧ We are active.
- ✧ We are unique.

We Start By Asking Questions ?

1. How do we want to feel in the space?

- ✧ Happy
- ✧ Safe
- ✧ Protected
- ✧ Cared for
- ✧ Important
- ✧ Free
- ✧ Connected to Each Other
- ✧ Warm

Downtown Master Plan

“Tom Davies Square should be transformed into a more diverse, green, inviting, animated CIVIC SPACE which is YEAR ROUND.”

We Start By Asking Questions

How can we take this as a great starting point but give it more passion and purpose.

Answer:

Have a goal

Goal

To use examples of great four season people places and adapt them and create our concepts to create THE BEST CIVIC SPACE IN THE WORLD.

This space must distinctly reflect our values, traditions, culture, history and path to the future.
