

Volunteer Sudbury / Bénévolat Sudbury

Request for $5,700

September 22 '08

Canadian Council on Learning (Macleans, Aug. '08)

“... Volunteering helps fortify community services, as well as provide learning opportunities for the volunteers themselves.”

Sudbury fourth among 37 cities in Canada
56.9% participation of its residents in volunteerism

Volunteer Sudbury / Bénévolat Sudbury

Supports and promotes volunteerism in the City of Greater Sudbury

City of Greater Sudbury

Annual $10,000

Accommodation

Minnow Lake Place

Continuous efforts to supplement the allocation

Programs

Matching program – for individuals and for organizations

Young Philanthropist Challenge for High School Students

Services and Activities

Helping High school students with 40 hours of volunteering

Sessions for Sports Link on recruiting and retention of volunteers

Assisting the City Civic Awards

Helping College and University students find volunteer opportunities

Working on Succession planning for volunteer organizations

Governance workshop Thursday, November 13

Community Consultation

Over 800 volunteer organizations

Nine community meetings across the City

Surveyed 84 organizations

Focus Groups

How we can best serve the needs of volunteerism

2010 Summer Games.

Volunteer Sudbury / Bénévolat Sudbury
Spearheading the Recruitment of Volunteers

$5,700

Sustain a media campaign

Promote Volunteerism in the City of Greater Sudbury.

Despite Sudbury's Rank Order

Volunteer Participation is Declining

Demand Always Greater than the Supply

Volunteerism Needs a Higher Profile

Greater Topic of Interest and Conversation