For Teachers:

A diamante is a poem shaped like a diamond.

All the information you need to write a Diamonte with your students is included

There is a Nouns list,

an adjectives list

and a verb list

a Worksheet

On the worksheet there are seven lines

Line one is a noun –so choose one from the list

Line two are adjectives so choose two from the list

Line three is for verbs choose three verbs

Line four is nouns that are connected to your subject, which is water

Line five is for Verbs again, choose three

Line Six is adjectives choose two

Line sever is nouns choose one

Good luck to these future poets, I wish you well.

NOUNS LIST

rain

water

pool

lake

river

dewdrop

waterfall

wetland

well

ADJECTIVES LIST

Clear

ADJECTIVES LIST

clear	muddy
foamy	glassy
blue	green
dirty	clean
calm	wavy
still	stormy

Verb List

swimming	fishing
diving	floating
running	rushing
swirling	cooling
showering	cleansing

Diamante Worksheet

Name _____

Diamante

A diamante (dee-uh-man-tay) has seven lines and is a diamond shaped poem. The rules for the number and type of words used on each line follow.

Diamante Rules   Example

Line 1: one word-noun   water Line 2: two words-adjectives   clear cold Line 3: three words-verbs   rushing gushing flowing Line 4: four words-nouns   fishes frogs tadpoles snakes Line 5: three words-verbs   jumping zipping slithering Line 6: two words-adjectives   deep clean Line 7: one word-noun   river

Write a diamante here:

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____