

Sponsorship Package for Youth Centres

Overview

The City of Greater Sudbury Youth Centres are dedicated to fostering a positive educational environment for youth aged 10 to 18. Our centres provide a safe and welcoming space for all participants, regardless of sex, race, religion, or economic status. We offer essential services such as:

- Homework help
- A safe social environment
- After-school meals
- Opportunities for field trips

With FREE programming available across seven locations in Greater Sudbury throughout the school year (September to June), we are committed to enriching the lives of our youth. We also have opportunities to expand our programming to summer centres with the support of sponsors.

Sponsorship and Recognition Opportunities

Presenting Sponsorship

- Become a presenting sponsor for all or specific youth centre locations. Your support will directly impact the programs and services we offer.

Brand Recognition

- Your brand will be prominently displayed on signage and associated communications at the youth centres, ensuring visibility among our community.

Support for Special Events

- Opportunities to sponsor special events, field trips, and our food program, making a meaningful difference in the lives of young participants.

Official Recognition

- Gain acknowledgment from the Mayor and members of City Council, showcasing your commitment to youth development and community support.

Branded Items

- Distribute branded gifts to youth participants, such as t-shirts, hats, or school supplies, fostering a sense of community and connection to your brand.

Current Partners

- Sudbury Five: Engaging weekly visits to youth centres to connect with kids and promote positive role models.
